A MAN STABBED.—On Friday night last, between ten and eleven o'clock, John Waite and Joseph Mellown met at the corner of High and Broad streets, with several acquaintances. A little sparring took place between Waite and Mellown, who at length parted apparently in friendship.

But Waite suddenly turned upon Mellown and struck him with a dirk, inflicting four serious wounds—one on the left shoulder, two on the side, and one on the abdomen; Waite then made off.

The wounded man was taken to the office of Dr. J. B. THOMAS, where his wounds were examined and dressed by Dr. DAUVEY. He is considered in a critical condition. We have not learned that Waite has been arrested.

CASE CHASE.—We are indebted to Gen. C. W. HILL, commanding the post, for a copy of General Order No. 3, relating to the drill and discipline of the troops at the camp. The following statement shows the exercises that take place in the afternoon during the hours in which visitors are admitted into the camp.

Assembly, Company Drills, 3:00 P. M.; Camp Inspection, 4:00 P. M.; Battalion Drills, 4:30 P. M.; Review, Dress Parade, 5:00 P. M.

THE U. S. COMMISSIONER HALLIDAY, of Cincinnati, on Thursday last, gave his opinion in the case of THOMAS B. LINCOLN, charged with treason, committing him for trial. He has been incarcerated in the jail of Vinton county.

The Public Schools of this city will reopen on Monday, September 2—two weeks from next Monday.

LIEUT. T. C. PLATT, of the Vedette, has been authorized by Lieut. Col. WARREN, of the Forty-ninth Ohio, to make a company for that regiment.

There are thirteen recruiting offices open in Dayton.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION.—JAMES D. TERRY, New York, has commenced the publication in weekly numbers, at 10 cents each, "of an authentic and thorough history of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation."

The first number, now before us, gives brief sketches of former invasions, and opens up the history of the present rebellion with chapters on its cause, its objects, and the progress of the rebellion. It bids fair to be a valuable repository of facts and documents.

Major STEPHENSON, the hero of Fort Pickens, arrived in Cincinnati, on Friday, from Chicago, having received instructions from Washington to report himself at the headquarters of the Department of Ohio for further orders.

FADDEO'S GOVT. BOND MIRROR, published by WILLIAM B. FADDEO, Banker and Exchange Broker, Cincinnati, weekly at $0.50, bound monthly at $3.00, and monthly at $1.00 a year, is one of the best publications of its kind.

A Company is now forming in Dayton, to be commanded by Captain O'Conor, and will be called the McCook Rangers.

THE THIRD OHIO ASSAULT.—W. H. SAGE, of the Third Regiment, Colonel MARSH, is now at home in this city, on furlough, on account of health impaired by fatigue and exposure in Western Virginia. He left his regiment about a week ago in the neighborhood of Cheat Mountain, and as soon as his health improved so as to permit his engaging in active service, he will rejoin his comrades at the end of war.

Adjutant SAGE reports the Third Ohio in excellent condition at the time he left. They had lost but one man by sickness since their organization. One was killed at Middle River Bridge, where Captain LAWSON, of this city, distinguished himself by his skill and courage.

The 2d Regiment had been sent to the support of the Fifteenth Indiana Regiments at the Hanesville road, 10 miles from Hanesville. Both regiments had two batteries. The enemy evidently intended to attack our forces in that quarter, who are under the command of Gen. ROSECRANS, of Indiana. But he will make an attack himself as soon as he considers his force strong enough. Gen. ROSECRANS was moving his columns to set in concert with Gen. RAYMOND.

By a letter received yesterday morning by a gentleman of this city from a member of the Third Ohio, we learn that our men are fortifying their position and preparing for an attack. If one should be made by either the rebels or our own troops, we may look out for a good report from the gallant boys of the Ohio Third.

L. R. NEAL, late Sergeant in Captain TAYLOR'S Company, Third Regiment, has received an order to raise a company for the Forty-sixth Regiment.

W. J. KOUNS, of this city, has been appointed Quartermaster to Col. CARRINGTON'S Regiment.

The Mayor of Washington Arrested.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24.—Mayor BARRETT, of Washington, passed through this city, as a prisoner this morning. He is en route for Fort Leavenworth, New York.

The record office in the Baltimore county court house at Towson, Maryland, was fired this morning by an incendiary, and destroyed, with all the records.

THE NEW LOAN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—There were eight applications yesterday at the Sub-Treasury for the new National Loan, in sums of $50 to $500.

THE LANCASTER UNION says that Captain STAFFORD, in that place on Wednesday last, with a company of 100 men, and Lieut. BURKEFIELD left on Friday last, with a new company. Both companies were destined for Camp GODDARD, near Zanesville, and are to be attached—Capt. STAFFORD'S Company to the First Regiment, and the other company to the Seventeenth.

THE CLEVELAND LEADER says that the first company of the Twenty-ninth Ohio Regiment, is now in camp and fully organized. Captain THOMAS CLARK, of Cleveland, has been appointed Major of the regiment, and is in camp to take the management of its organization.

One hundred Government horses were shipped on Friday from Cincinnati for Washington.

THE ZANESVILLE ADVERTISER learns that H. J. JEWELL, secy. who was accidentally shot at Clarkesburg, Va., is rapidly improving.

EJECTION OF A TELEGRAPH OPERATOR.—The telegraph operator at Lancaster was ejected from his office on the 17th inst. The basis states the facts of the case to these:

FAYMASTER H. B. RAMZ directed the operator to send dispatches and charge the State. The operator replied that he could not do so under his instructions to send none but prepaid messages. Mr. REED, thereupon ordered Captain STAFFORD, who was then getting up a company at Lancaster, but not yet in the United States service, to take a squad of men and forcibly eject the operator from the telegraph office. This was accordingly done.

The friends of Mr. REED interfered and quieted the matter as soon as possible. Adjutant-General BUCKNELL immediately sent an order re-instating the operator.

OHIO has now in service eighteen regiments of infantry, three companies of cavalry, and four batteries of artillery.

THE WILLIAM D. HOWELL, son of W. C. Howell, editor of the Atabasca Sentinel, has been appointed Consul to Rome. The father goes as Consul to Rio Janeiro. WILLIAM D. was recently assistant editor of the Columbus Journal.
